Selected publications

Sueda, K. (2012). Tamenteki aidentiti no chohsei to feisu (mentsu) [Face and the negotiation of multiple identities], Kyoto: Nakanishiya.

Sueda, K. (1998)’Chugokuji gakusei to nihonjin gakusei no mentsu no gainen oyobi komyunikeishon sutorateji ni kansuru hikaku no ichi jirei’[A quantitative analysis of differing perceptions of mien-tzu/mentsu between Chinese and Japanese students: A case study], Shakaishinrigaku Kenkyu [Research in Social Psychology], 13,2,103-111.

Sueda, K. (1997) ‘Chugokujin gakusei to nihonjin gakusei no mentsu no gainen oyobi komyunikeishon sutorateji ni kansuru hakakukenkyu: A ryoteki bunseki no tenkai (Sono 2)’[A quantitative study of differences in mien-tzu or mentsu between Chinese and Japanese students(Part 2)], Hokuseironshu [Hokusei Review, the Faculty of Literature], 34, 1-24.

Sueda, K. (1994) ‘Komyunikeishon kanrenkamoku ni okeru shimyureishon geimu no donyu to gakusei ni yoru sono hyoka’ [Introducing intercultural communication simulation games in communication-related classes], Hokuseironshu [Hokusei Review, the Faculty of Literature], 31, 129-157.

Conferences
2013: Globalized society and multiple identities (Panelist). Co-presented with K. Suzuki, R. Kobayashi, and F. Nitta at the 34th Annual Conference, Intercultural Education Society of Japan at Nihon University.

2008: Enhancing communication skills for human service providers. Co-presented with Nagata, L. A. & Saruhashi, J. at the International Mental Health Professionals of Japan, the 12th Annual Conference.

2005: Shame, guilt, and remorse and reintegration of identities: A comparative study of public and political reactions to two high profile juvenile cases in the UK and Japan, Co-presented with Smith, D. at SIETAR, Japan 2005 Annual Conference at Rikkyo.

2003: Shame and pride in identity negotiation, SIETAR, Japan March Workshop, Reitaku University Research Center, Tokyo.

1999: A comparative study on expressions of face: Chinese, Japanese and Thai, presented at the 7th International Conference on Cross-Cultural Communication, University of Louisville, Kentucky.

1998: ‘Negotiation of multiple layers of face (mentsu) through interpersonal or intercultural communication’, presented at SIETAR, International Congress, Reitaku University, Chiba.

1997: ‘Kajin no mentsu to nihonjin no mentsu: Zainichi taiwanjin no shinzokuishiki o chushin ni (sono 2) [Chinese face (mien-tzu) and Japanese face (mentsu): An analysis of the Taiwanese perception of family-Part 2], presented at the 18th Annual Convention of the International Education Society, Japan at Ryukoku University, Kyoto.

1995: ‘Mentsu no gainen to komyunikeshon sutorateji: Tairikuchugokujin, nanpokeijin, nihonjin’ [The perception of face (mien-tzu/mentsu) and communication strategies: PRC Chinese, other Chinese and Japanese], presented at the 36th Annual Convention of the Japanese Society of Social Psychology at Seijo University, Tokyo.

1994: ‘Mentsu no gainen no chigai to soreniyoru komyunikeshon sutairu no chigai: Chugokujin to nihonjin’ [Differences in the perception of mianzi and communication styles: People’s Republic of China and Japan], presented at the 24th Annual Convention of the Communication Association of Japan at Keisen Women’s College, Tokyo.

1992: ‘Kuraku hakase to sono shuhen no hitotachi’ [William S. Clark and his associates], presented at the 22nd Annual Convention of the Communication Association of Japan at Nihon University, Tokyo.

Symposiums, invited speeches and workshops

2013 (Keynote speech): “Face (mentsu) and negotiation of multiple identities” at the 10th Conference of Rikkyo Intercultural Communication Society at Rikkyo University.

2009 (Panel discussion): “Progress and prospects of intercultural communication research and education” at the 24th Conference of SIETAR, Japan.

2008 (Keynote speech): “Face and communication in multicultural interaction: Universality and differences” at 2008 International Conference on Workforce Education and Development in Taiwan.

2005 (Symposium): Exploring the significance of triangulated research: Through a study of returnees’ identities and mentsu (face). Workshop co-sponsored by Japan Society for Multicultural Relations and Japanese Association of Qualitative Psychology at Aoyama Gakuin University.

Translation of books and articles

Teaching

- Teaching undergraduate courses on Introduction to Communication, Tutorial Seminar: Interpersonal and Intercultural Communication, Intercultural Training, etc.
- Teaching graduate courses on Communication Theories, Special Topic on Communication Studies, etc.
- Postgraduate supervision: 3 Ph.D. theses, 21 M.A. dissertations and 10 M.A. project submissions since 1998.

Awards and grants
2012 Communication Association of Japan Award for Outstanding Book
(Sueda, K., Kakai, H., Tasaki, K., and Saruhashi, J. (2011) Komyunikeishon kenkyuhoh
[Research methods in communication studies], Kyoto: Nakanishiya.

June 2006-March 2009 Grants-in-Aid for Scientific Research (Sueda, K., Nagata, L. A., and Saruhashi, J. Domesutikku biorensu shiensha shien proguramu: Komyunikeishon gaku no shiten karu [Domestic violence survivor supporters’ program: From the perspective of communication studies].

January –August 2005 The Daiwa Anglo-Japan Foundation Small Grants (Smith, D. and Sueda, K. A comparative study of public and political reactions to two high profile cases of homicide in the UK and Japan, focusing on shame, guilt, remorse and reintegration).

Editorships
Member of the Editorial Board of Journal of Intercultural Communication, 2002-present.
Member of the Editorial Board of Intercultural Education, 2004-present

Academic & Professional Associations
The Communication Association of Japan
Intercultural Education Society, Japan (Convention Committee Co-chair: 2000)
The Japanese Society of Social Psychology
The Japan Sociological Society
The Kanto Sociological Society
SIETAR (The Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research), Japan, (Vice-president:
Human Dignity and Humiliation Studies (Advisory board: 2005-present)